HADONG COUNTY X JUNGSIK

Nestled between Mt. Jiri and the Seomjin River, Hadong County in Gyeongsangnam-do is celebrated as the birthplace of Korean tea. In Hwagae, tea cultivation began more than 1,200 years ago during the Silla Dynasty, marking Hadong as Korea's first tea-growing region. Today, the county continues to honor this heritage, preserving and advancing its rich tea culture and the tradition of hand-roasted teas. In a special partnership with Jungsik, Hadong County presents the finest selection of tea leaves, served here exclusively.

U J E O N 우 전 - Premium Early Spring Tea 35

Ujeon is the most delicate of Korean green teas, hand-harvested in early spring before Gogu (Grain Rain, around April 20). Made from the year's very first buds and tender young leaves, it offers a refined sweetness with almost no astringency. Cultivated in Hadong, the birthplace of Korean tea, Ujeon embodies purity, elegance, and the quiet energy of spring's awakening.

J A K S A L 잭 살 - Grace of Sparrow's Tongue 30

Jaksal, literally 'sparrow's tongue tea,' is made from young spring leaves whose pointed shape resembles the tongue of a sparrow. Picked slightly later than Ujeon but earlier than Sejak (harvested in late spring to the beginning of summer), it carries both freshness and body — with a sweet fragrance, vibrant green character, and a clean, lingering finish. Rooted in Hadong's historic fields, Jaksal is cherished as a pure expression of Korean green tea.
